Meet our 2nd Year Mission Leaders

Lauren Volkart

Hello! My name is Lauren Volkart, and I just graduated from Florida State University with a degree in Environmental Studies and English. I've lived in Florida my whole life. Some of my favorite things are dogs, reading, and musical theatre.

I converted to Catholicism as a junior in high school essentially because it was where my friends were. What started out as something that I thought was an inconsequential decision turned out to change the whole course of my life. It's amazing to look back now and see God's providential hand working through all of the small conversions I've experienced over the past 5 years.

I had always wanted to be a veterinarian when I grew up, but my Sophomore year of college those plans began to fall apart. However, unbeknownst to me, the Lord was at work. Through a program at the Catholic Student Union at FSU I was learning how to reach out to other students, and found a passion for showing others the love that had been shown to me by Christ through older students and staff members. For me, it all comes back to the verse 1 John 4:19, "We love because he first loved us." My goal this year and in life is to love others the way that the Lord has loved me.

Kim Esguerra

Kim is a born and raised Jersey girl, always eating the best bagels and pizzas throughout the land. She grew up going to Church on Sundays with her family and attending Catholic school her entire life. But it wasn't until college that she really found her faith.

Kim went to Seton Hall University and received a B.S. in biochemistry. She came into college with a mindset to focus primarily on acing her science classes, but soon came to realize that there was more to life than strict academia. At the start of Kim's freshman year, she met a Catholic outreach ministry on campus, called Saint Paul's Outreach, at Seton Hall's Involvement fair. Without much thought, she went to one of their events. Upon meeting many students and mission leaders there, she quickly fell in love with the friendly and genuinely caring community. In her spring semester, the Lord was able to capture Kim's heart in a new and personal way on a Fan into Flame retreat, where she witnessed the Lord's power and all-consuming love for each one of His sons and daughters. A few months afterwards, Kim eagerly attended the School of the New Evangelization where she gave her life to Christ and became one of His young bold disciples.

Now, Kim's relationship with Jesus continues to grow. She thrives in knowing that she is loved by the King of kings, and she is honored that God would use her to help others know and thrive in that truth as well. Kim seeks to live her life by what Paul wrote to the Corinthians: "Follow me as I follow Christ." She is thankful to be serving at Rutgers University, where she can bring students to the Lord while still enjoying her favorite Jersey bagels!
